

ELASTIC CITY

Dears,

Thanks to everyone who joined our final festival! Together over the past seven seasons, we've built something really beautiful. I'm so thankful for the love and support from all of you—the artists, staff, board, participants, curators, funders, sponsors, partners, press and 'fans' from afar!

Elastic City's finished presenting work save the book. The book! It'll be my main focus for a while—look for it next year. Meanwhile, please check out the photos from the festival below.

See you soon.

Love,
Todd
